

SILVERARROW CAPITAL ADVISORS LLP EXTREMELY DISAPPOINTED WITH ACTIONS TAKEN BY ROFIN SINAR TECHNOLOGIES INC.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, DECEMBER 11, 2015 - SILVERARROW CAPITAL ADVISORS LLP ISSUED THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT WITH RESPECT TO ITS INVESTMENT IN ROFIN-SINAR TECHNOLOGIES INC. (NASDAQ: RSTI, FRANKFURT STOCK EXCHANGE, RSI)

As one of the largest stockholders of Rofin-Sinar Technologies Inc. (“Rofin” or the “Company”), we were extremely disappointed to see that Ms. Jenifer Bunis has been added to the board of directors (the “Board”) yesterday and that her addition will not be ratified by stockholders at the next upcoming annual meeting. While we would normally view the addition of new directors and diversity as a positive step for a company that has not added an independent director in over 11 years, we view this announcement as a direct response to the election contest that we plan to wage if our three director nominees are not added to the Board. It is clear to us that significant changes are required to the composition to the Board to ensure that stockholder interests are properly safeguarded.

We have strong concerns with Rofin’s corporate governance, in addition to our previous noted concerns with strategy, performance and capital allocation. When Rofin added Mr. Merk to the Board in July after he replaced Mr. Braun as CEO, they quietly noted that Mr. Merk would not run for election until 2018, in effect leaving stockholders with no voice on the Board’s selection of a new CEO until almost three years after his appointment. Now the Board has increased the size of the Board to add Ms. Bunis and noted that she will not run for election until 2018 as well. We believe proper corporate governance would require both of these individuals to be elected by stockholders at the earliest opportunity, in this case the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders.

We have attempted to work constructively with the Board for nine months. After months of engagement with the Board, it appeared to us that the Board had no intention of addressing our concerns, which include the addition of individuals who have C-level executive experience and governance expertise to the Board, in order to provide adequate oversight of management. The Rofin Board needs individuals that can properly help the Company with finance, corporate governance, capital allocation and strategy. We question whether Ms. Bunis, a non C-level employee of a laser company, has the skills currently needed on the Board, as there are already numerous individuals with laser experience. It is apparent that the Board does not understand the seriousness of Rofin’s governance crisis. This Board has:

- Allowed Mr. Baasel to serve on the Board in spite of him leasing property to the Company at significantly above market rates
- Made exceptions for every director turning 70 to remain on the Board, in spite of their Charter’s specified age limit
- Allowed Mr. Smoke to serve as head of the Audit Committee and remain a Board member while he was a named defendant in a multiyear court case related to improper activities in his previous role as CFO of a company and did not provide stockholders with any information on why Mr. Smoke continues to serve on the Board
- Not purchased any shares with their own funds
- Not improved the corporate governance of the Company in any way; in particular, the Company’s charter retains:
 - Staggered election of directors
 - No ability for stockholders to call a special meeting
 - No ability for stockholders to act by written consent
 - Plurality voting in director elections
 - Supermajority voting on certain matters

PRESS RELEASE

It is clear to us that significant change is needed on the Board and we will officially nominate our three director nominees once the nomination window opens in the next week. We have tried to work with the Board to help drive long term stockholder value, but it is clear that this entrenched Board is not open to new ideas and dissenting views. We are shocked that the Board would add directors without having such individuals run for election at the next annual meeting. We will continue our efforts to safeguard stockholder interests and only care about positioning the Company for significant growth and value creation. The current Board's incentives seem more aligned with their own interests than those of stockholders.

If you would like to meet with us or discuss our views on the Company in greater detail, please feel free to contact D.F.
